Care Awards finalists announced

Brussels, 18 May 2016: 17 social marketing campaigns from 8 countries have been shortlisted for the final judging round of the 2016 Care Awards. The selected campaigns will be judged by a panel of agency professionals and media representatives chaired by MEP Dita Charanzova (ALDE). The finalists are listed here.

In total, campaigns from 17 countries worldwide were entered in all 5 categories: Non-profit Organisations and Non-governmental Bodies; Government Bodies and Related Organisations; Local and Regional Authorities; Corporate Governance and Healthy Lifestyle Promotion, which aims to raise awareness about healthy eating, physical exercise and lifestyles to combat obesity.

The winners of the 2016 Care Awards will be announced at the Awards Ceremony in Brussels on 14 June and will receive their Awards from the Jury Chair, MEP Dita Charanzova. A specially composed jury will also, based on received nominations, choose an MEP who will be rewarded for her / his biggest overall contribution to society, based on dedication, impact, creativity and future sustainability.

The main aim of the Care Awards, organised by EACA in cooperation with ACT Responsible, is to highlight the advertising industry's specific contribution to society by selecting and celebrating the most powerful and relevant social marketing campaigns and to inspire, promote and federate the actors of the advertising communications industry around social responsibility and sustainable development. The Care Awards cover subjects such as public health, environment, sustainable consumption, public safety, disability, human rights, domestic violence, child abuse, homelessness, education and other similar topical public issues.

Registrations for the Awards Ceremony are open on the Care Awards website.

All entries will be included in the ACT Responsible online gallery and eligible for selection in the ACT Responsible World Tour Exhibition.
